

How to cut down on your paperwork: dispensations

Apply for a dispensation to save time completing forms P11D or P9D.

You may be able to cut down on your paperwork by asking HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) for a dispensation to cover the benefits and expenses you pay your employees. A dispensation, which covers both tax and NICs, is a notice from HMRC that means you don't need to put any expenses and benefits included in the dispensation on forms P11D and P9D, and employees don't need to put them on their Tax Returns.

A dispensation can be given for expenses or benefits where HMRC is satisfied that no tax would be payable by your employees on expenses paid or benefits provided. Expense claims must be independently vouched and, where possible, supported by receipts.

If a dispensation is given for expenses, HMRC would not normally count them as earnings for Class 1 NICs. If the dispensation is given for employer provided benefits, HMRC would not normally treat them as liable for Class 1A NICs.

Not covered by dispensations

- company cars and vans that are taxable
- private medical insurance
- cheap loans
- mileage payments (employees' cars)
- benefits and expenses covered by an existing exemption in law. Further guidance can be found on the HMRC website at www.hmrc.gov.uk/paye/exb-intro-dispensation.htm

How to apply

If you want to apply for a dispensation complete form P11DX, or have your agent complete it, and send it to HMRC. If you have any notes for guidance on employees' expenses, please enclose a copy with the form. HMRC will tell you if any further information is needed.

Keep it under review

HMRC will also review the dispensation from time to time, but will normally only withdraw it if the qualifying conditions are no longer satisfied.

Approved Mileage Allowance Payments

You can make tax-free payments to your employees who use their own cars for business travel if you pay no more than the published statutory rates. These can be found at www.hmrc.gov.uk/rates/travel.htm. There is no need to report such payments and they do not require a dispensation. Any amounts that you pay over the published approved rates are taxable and must be entered on the P11D.

Retrospection

If the conditions for granting a dispensation are satisfied, the dispensation will strictly take effect from the date of the notice issued by HMRC, although it may be agreed that it can take effect from the beginning of the tax year to which the dispensation relates. A dispensation cannot apply with retrospective effect to an earlier year.
